WEEKLY PRAYER GUIDE

Youth Fellowship (YF)

- » Pray for the upcoming combined YF programme (4 June) with Zion Bishan. Pray especially for good weather as well as a meaningful bonding time with the YFers there.
- » Pray for the mentors, committee members and every single individual youth that as we develop close bonds with one another, we can spiritually grow together in Christ.
- » Pray for a smooth transition back to live worship, with more worship leaders and musicians stepping up and serving together.

International Fellowship Ministry (IF)

- » We thank God that the Book Table last Sunday, 22 May was well received. We pray that all of us will have a heart to reach out to the foreign workers in our midst - may it be our helpers, colleagues, classmates or friends.
- » May the IF Comm obtain a sufficient line-up of Gospel literatures and tracts in different foreign languages for distribution. May God help them as they gather it for the next schedule of the Book Table.
- » Pray for the upcoming IF In-person Fellowship on 4 June @ 5.30pm -7.00pm. Pray that God Himself move the people we invite to come.
- » May the employers in our congregation allow their helpers to join the in-person fellowship.

BPCIS UPDATE - MAY 2022

Pastor David Wong

General Secretary, BPCIS

STRENGTHENING OUR CHURCHES

In the January update, we spelled out the 3-fold agenda of BPCIS in the coming years: Devoting to Prayer, Building Bridges, and Strengthening our Churches, captured in the acronym DBS 2.0.

Since then, we thank the Lord for the following developments. The Good Friday Service, with one theme and speaker but held at different locations, brought together more than 1,500 onsite and another 1,725 online. Pastor Ivan Chow of Bethesda Church, Bukit Arang, gave a stirring message, “One Sacrifice, Once and for All”. The offering for BPCIS totalled $30,051.35.

We welcomed Hebron BP Church which joined BPCIS as our 10th member church on 10 March. Hebron promptly hosted the DMA Seminar on 30 April. Jointly sponsored by Biblical Graduate School of Theology and BPCIS, the seminar brought together 30 invited leaders from our 10 churches to consider pastoral implications from the newly introduced legislation, Divorce by Mutual Agreement. A brief report is found on our website, BPCIS.org.sg.

We look forward to two upcoming events: the Pastors & Leaders Retreat on 4-5 July at Changi Cove with Pastor Denesh of The Crossing Church as speaker, and the Annual Presbytery Meeting on 24 September at Mount Hermon’s new home at Henderson. For the latter we will not have a guest speaker this year. Instead, under the theme “Returning”, our churches will share on how the post-pandemic world looks like in their churches, and we spend time in prayer.

BPCIS UPDATE - MAY 2022

Pastor David Wong

General Secretary, BPCIS

Finally, in April we add Joseph Tee (Zion Serangoon) to three men already preparing for ordination: Paul Yeo and Ng Zhiwen (Zion Bishan), David Leong (Emmanuel). We also welcome to the Presbytery newly elected elders: Loh Pin Chuan and Lai Pak Wah (Mount Carmel), Aric Loh (Shalom), Timothy Soh (Zion Serangoon), and Chan Kin Yip (Zion Bishan). May all that is happening go on to strengthen our churches.
