BOOK CIRCLE BOOK REVIEW

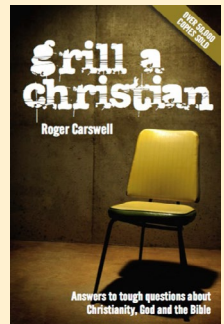

GRILL A CHRISTIAN BY ROGER CARSWELL

by Elizabeth

(Elizabeth is an undergraduate worshipping in Zion Evening Service with her parents)

Don't all religions lead to God? How could a God of love send people to hell? Aren't there genocides in the Bible?

Grill a Christian seeks to provide Biblical answers to all these questions and many more. The book is aimed at answering unbelievers' questions about Christianity and is also suitable for believers who are trying to share the Gospel with their friends.

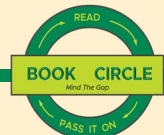

A variety of topics are covered, helpfully organised into questions about God, the Bible, Jesus, morality, suffering, religion, life after death, and becoming a Christian. Some are more aimed at people skeptical of Christianity (Where did Cain get his wife? Doesn't the Bible forbid eating prawns?). Other questions might arise in the course of sharing the gospel with someone (How could Jesus die for me when I wasn't yet born? Who decides what is right and wrong anyway? Can I repent on my deathbed?). Still others target concerns and misconceptions that people might have (Haven't wars been caused by religion? Aren't churches full of hypocrites?).

Each answer is kept brief – within a page or two – and written in a straightforward, easy to understand style. The book ends with a call for the questioner to believe in the Gospel and come to believe in Jesus as the only way to heaven.

Grill a Christian is a useful guide to prepare believers for their discussions about Christianity with the people around them. It highlights the main elements of the Gospel message and provides answers to questions that unbelieving friends and family may ask. Pick up this little book for a short and interesting weekend read and find the answers to common questions!
