WEEKLY PRAYER GUIDE

Praying for the World: Indigenous and Tribal Peoples

Local ethnic or folk religions have seen great losses to the larger religious movements. They were the dominant faith among 30% of the world in 1900 but only among 9% today. Yet traditional religion has not gone away. Many followers of world religions wear their faith lightly and remain, at heart, followers of folk religions: shamanists, idol worshippers, spiritists or ancestor worshippers. The worldwide fascination with spells, amulets, crystals, and the occult highlights the power of the old ways. People who claim to connect with the spirit-world are still in demand around the world. Their presence is a kind of tax on fear. Yet people who have turned to Christ from folk religion testify to the power of Christ over spells, curses, fears, taboos and superstitions and also in the life-and-death issues like sin and forgiveness.

- » Pray for the light of Christ to shine ever brighter into the world of animism.
- » Pray for any whose lives are governed by fear and superstition that they will find peace and rest in God.
- » Pray that the Holy Spirit will bring repentance and new life to animists whether they are outside the Church or nominally members of it.

Youth Fellowship Retreat (17-19 March)

- » Thank God for the opportunity for our youths to have an overnight retreat in Christ during the March holidays.
- » Pray for the Holy Spirit to renew the youths' hearts as they reflect on experiencing spiritual rest.
- » Pray for the Retreat Committee (Laraine, Chloe, Kayla, Evan) to have wisdom and strength as they plan and run the whole event.

Becoming Tavistock Ready (TSR): The Word

- » Ask the LORD to open our hearts and minds by the power of the Holy Spirit, that we may hear His Word with joy.

Prayer for Lent 2025

Dear Father,

I know you cannot take lightly the sins that I commit because you are a God of holiness who loves justice and does not allow evil to go unpunished. But I thank you for your wisdom and mercy in devising a plan that would allow the curse that was rightfully mine to fall upon your Son.

In Christ's name. Amen.
