WEEKLY PRAYER GUIDE

Singapore General Elections 2025 (GE 2025)

- » Thank God for those He has allowed to be our elected leaders in Singapore according to the results of our GE 2025.
- » Let us continue to pray for our leaders, regardless of the political party we support, as the LORD has requires of us (1 Tim 2:1-2; Rom 13:1-2)
- » Ask the Holy Spirit to help keep our eyes fixed on Jesus as we long for the Heavenly Kingdom where there will be no more pain and suffering (Rev 21)

Praying for the work of Drug Rehabilitation in Singapore

Despite Singapore's zero-tolerance stance towards drugs, consumption is on the rise, even amongst the young. Central Narcotic Bureau (CNB) reported that the number of drug abusers arrested in 2023 increased by 10% from 2022, of which 30% (952) were new abusers.

Our church member, Judy Fong, has been working as a free-lance rehabilitation counsellor in Singapore Prison since 2014, mainly with drug addicts in the Drug Rehabilitation Centres or the Penal sector.

Please pray for...

- » parents to be knowledgeable and clear to communicate to their children the danger of drugs abuse
- » children and youth to be mentally and emotionally healthy and not dabble in drugs
- » inmates to recognise their needs to kick their habits
- » Judy to be the the effective counsellor after God's heart

SYNOPSIS OF GOSPEL TRACT

TRACT OF THE MONTH - 'Happy Mother's Day'

This tract brings us through the love Mr Yeoh Hong Yee has experienced in his life. From his younger days of receiving love from his mother, to the final act of love his mother showed him. It is not only heartwarming but speaks of every mother who loves her children deeply.

Through a mother's love, Mr Yeoh brought out the point of God's love for His children - a love that surpasses all humanly kind of love. And that love was manifested in Jesus Christ who died on the cross for the sins of man. This tract is a simple story of a mother's love, yet it tells of an extraordinary story of God's love for His people.

I pray you would pick this tract up and give it to someone who has yet to experience this amazing love of God.
