Christ and His Gospel brings redemption and restoration not only in individual lives, but into broken relationships as well. What are some relationship in your life right now that desperately need the healing power of the Gospel?

WEEKLY PRAYER GUIDE

Vision: “Every Gardener a Missionary”

- » Ask the Holy Spirit to send a revival in the hearts of all worshippers in Zion Serangoon.
- » Also, ask God to share off the spiritual lethargy in our spiritual lives.
- » May we live out the mission of God as a response to His love towards us (1 John 4:19)

Senior Adult Fellowship (SAF) Outing (25 September)

Please uphold in prayer our group of 45 seniors from the Senior Adult Fellowship as they go for an outing to Johor Bahru.

- » Safety in travel and as the seniors move from venue to venue throughout the day.
- » Smooth traffic conditions and good weather for the entire trip.
- » Meaningful bonding and joyful fellowship among the seniors, that hearts may be encouraged and relationships deepened.
- » Ps Lawrence Ong, as he shares God's Word during the outing — that his message will speak powerfully and personally to all who hear. May this outing be a time of refreshment, connection, and spiritual enrichment for everyone involved.

2MS Anniversary (9th anniversary)

- » Let us come before the LORD to adore His faithfulness for sustaining the 2MS for the past 9 years.
- » May the Holy Spirit continue spark joy and awe in the hearts of all worshippers for the LORD as they encounter Him at 2MS.
- » Continue to remember the committee (Ps Wendell Chua, Dn Lee Lin Ping (Chairman), Adrian Koh, Dns April Ding) in prayer as they continue serving in 2MS.

Blk 123 Ministry

- » Pray for more to have a burden for this ministry and to join us in getting to know the residents, so that they may see and know the love of Christ through us.
- » Please also pray for opportunities for volunteers to have spiritual conversations with the residents as they build deeper relationships with them.

SERVICE & LEADERSHIP

E/Audio books are available in Zion E-Library. Hard copies of books and magazines are available from Book Circle in the Fellowship Hall and The Deck @ Tavistock

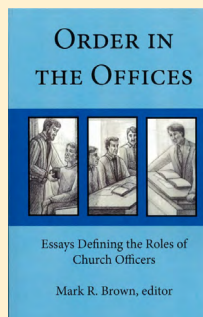

Mark 10:45 – “For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Charles Swindoll brings his sensible and straightforward style to offer a deeply spiritual approach to the role of leader in his book, “Hand Me Another Brick”. He demonstrates how to size up a task, organize and motivates a team, and respond to inevitable obstacles such as unforeseen setbacks, unrelenting deadlines, criticism and outside resistance, personal conflicts, financial pressures and temptations. The insights that Swindoll draws from Nehemiah’s wise administration will change your approach to leadership.

This book, “The Call by Os Guinness” is for everyone! No matter what stage if life we are in, we need to be reminded of God’s call on our life. To be a disciple of Jesus is to be” called one” and so to become “a followers of the Way”. Our primary calling as followers of Christ is by him, to him, and for him. Our secondary calling, considering who God is as sovereign, is that everyone, everywhere, and in everything should think, speak, live, and act entirely for him.

Grounded in Christ’s teachings on church government, Order in the Offices offers a rich blend of theological depth and practical wisdom, readers will find their understanding of church governance reinvigorated and their engagement in their church’s life and mission bolstered. The diverse essays work together to illuminate the vital importance of maintaining clear distinctions between offices, demonstrating how this framework preserves the church’s integrity and effectiveness. This book serves as an indispensable resource for church leaders, theology students, and laypeople across denominational lines who desire to deepen their understanding of biblical church structure.

The book examines the Presbyterian and Reformed understanding of the Christian faith and the qualifications for the office of elder and its importance to the church, as well as the functions of that office. It discusses the role of the elders in the session and in the presbytery and their relationships to pastors and to the whole church.

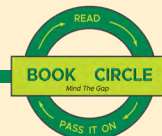

Effective leadership is important and nowhere is this more true than in the church. Jeramie Rinne in the book “Church Elders” offers readers a concise overview of the Bible’s teaching on spiritual leadership, setting forth an easy-to-understand “job description” for elders that is focused on enabling pastors and church leaders to effectively shepherd their congregations. This conversational book emphasizes purposeful ministry rather than project management and will also bolster leaders’ confidence by encouraging them to embrace their pastoral calling with grace, wisdom, and a clarity of vision.

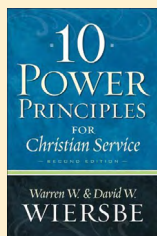

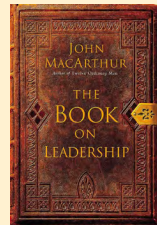

This world is full of distractions, and a pastor’s life is no different. In this little book, William Still reminds us that the pastor’s main task is feeding and shepherding the flock. He is to feed the flock by leading them to green pastures. He also has to care for them when they are sick or hurt, and seek them when they go astray. The end of all pastoral work must never be forgotten – that is to lead God’s people to offer themselves up to Him in total devotion of worship and service.

Kevin DeYoung in his book “Just Do Something” states it very simply for Christians to settle down, make choices, and do the hard work of seeing through their choices. Too often, he writes, God’s people tinker around with churches, jobs, and relationships, worrying that they haven’t found God’s perfect will for their lives. Or, even worse, they do nothing, stuck in a frustrated state of paralyzed indecisions, waiting...waiting...waiting for clear, direct unmistakable direction. God do not need to tell us what to do at each fork in the road. He has already revealed His plans for our lives: to love Him with our whole heart, to obey His Word, and after that to do what we like. No need for hocus-pocus. No reason to be directionally challenged. Just do something with our lives, our talents and resources that He has given us.

In the book, The Book on Leadership, John MacArthur points out that 'Leadership' does not come from a job title. It is not a matter of personality or charisma or as iron-fisted authority. True leadership comes from a much deeper source. He explores the life of the ultimate Christian leader, the apostle Paul, and uses Scripture to take on the common myths about what a leader really is and does. It is great tool for not only developing your leadership but also knowing how to recognize godly leadership when you see it.

Warren and David Wiersbe, representing two generations, in their book, "10 Power Principles for Christian Service" believe that generational differences should not keep ministers from relating to their congregations. In this thoughtful and practical book, they offer ten principles for Christian service that always work and, in all places, inviting ministers to get back to the basics of serving others. Everyone; new, seasoned pastors or anyone in service, will find this a welcome source of inspiration and instruction on how people in service can relate and minister to people of all ages.

"Well done, good and faithful servant". Every ministry leader wants to hear these words when they meet their Lord. But what does successful ministry look like? This book, "Faithful Leaders: and the things that matters most" by Rico Tice recognizes that the spiritual health of the church leaders in large part determines the spiritual health of the congregation and therefore the success of the ministry. Rico Tice draws on decades of experience in church leadership to call pastors and others with oversight of areas of church ministry to define success biblically, fight their sin, lead themselves and service their churches.

Call to Discipleship

In "Call to Discipleship", TableTalk Series by Ligonier Ministry, Sinclair Ferguson defines "What is a Disciple"; Edward Welch writes about "When Experience doesn't match Reality"; Adriel Sanchez expounds on "Living Stones in the Temple of God"; David Perry on "The Priesthood of Disciples" and many more articles.

These books and magazines are brought directly to you by Book Circle. Hard copies of books and magazine are available in the Fellowship Hall and at The Deck on the second floor. More than 1,000 E/Audio books are accessible on Zion Serangoon e Library.

You can contact Bee Hong (HP 91711009) or Pek Hong (HP 98188220) or Dns Meng Choo (HP 96156853) for an access to our e-Library. Alternatively, fill up this online form (tinyurl.com/ZSelibrarycard) to provide your email address for the password to gain access to our e-Library.
